

WHALE PROTECTION DAY

WHALES WORTH WATCHING, WHALES WORTH SAVING Benefiting Sea Shepherd Conservation Society

Date: Saturday, September 30th 2006
Time: 9:00am Departure
Location: Spirit of Gold Coast
 Fisherman's Wharf Tavern, Mariners Cove Marina, Sea World

Program: On September 30th the Gold Coast Whale Watch & Conservation Association Inc. is having a day for the Whales to benefit Sea Shepherd Conservation Society.

Five whale watching boats will depart at 9.00 am on Saturday, September 30th for a two hour whale watching tour. A one day only special discount price of $50 per person will be charged with all proceeds to go to Sea Shepherd's upcoming Whale Defence Campaign.

Sea Shepherd's International Director, Jonny Vasic, will be in attendance along with volunteers who will be on board to answer questions and distribute information about the upcoming campaign to defend the whales of the Antarctic.

The Gold Coast Whale Watch & Conservation Association Inc. consists of the following groups who care deeply about the whales and are donating the proceeds of this event to Sea Shepherd:
